June 30, 2014

According to St. Mary Parish Sheriff Mark Hebert, over the last 72 hour reporting period the Sheriff's Office responded to 132 complaints and reports the following arrests.

From the Narcotics Division:

Andrew Goleman, 35, 213 Railroad Road, Patterson, LA was arrested on June 27, 2014 at 3:24 pm on a warrant for operation of a clandestine laboratory. Detectives with the St. Mary Parish Sheriff's Office Narcotics Division located Goleman at his residence on the warrant. The warrant stems from an investigation of an active methamphetamine lab at a residence on Park Place Lane in Bayou Vista. Detectives identified Goleman as one of the subjects involved in the operation of the illegal lab. Detectives transported Goleman to the parish jail for booking. No bond is set.

James Gash, 33, 1802 N Street, Patterson, LA was arrested on June 27, 2014 at 4:01 pm on the following charges:

- Possession of marijuana with intent to distribute
- Possession of crack cocaine with intent to distribute
- Possession of Schedule I (MDMA)
- Possession of drug paraphernalia
- Violation of controlled dangerous substance law (drug free zone)
- Possession of a CDS in the presence of a minor
- Driving under suspension
- Improper display of license plate
- Transactions involving drug proceeds

Narcotics detectives patrolling the Bayou Vista area observed a vehicle with no visible license plate displayed. Detectives conducted a traffic stop on Southeast Boulevard and made contact with the driver, identified as Gash. Upon checking Gash's information, detectives learned that Gash was driving under suspension. Continuing the investigation, detectives received consent to search the vehicle and located several bags of crack cocaine with an estimated street value of over $13,000 dollars. Detectives also located several bags of high grade marijuana with a street value of approximately $1,140 dollars and a bag of MDMA capsules with an approximate street value $240. Items of drug paraphernalia including razor blades and rolling papers were found inside the vehicle as well. Detectives located $9,329.00 dollars in cash (US currency) on Gash's person which was seized pending forfeiture. Detectives believe the money was derived from illegal drug sales. There was a 5 year old child in the vehicle at the time the drugs were located. Detectives transported Gash to the parish jail for booking. Bond is set at $97,000.
